

FAIRFIELD

arts & convention center

UPCOMING EVENTS

Ticket Office 641-472-2787

www.fairfieldacc.com

The Sondheim Center Artist Series Tickets Now on Sale! Season Tickets, Pick Packages and Single Tickets

Fri, Sat, Sun, Aug. 3-5 and Thurs, Fri, Sat, Sun, Aug. 9-12

The Orphan Train

Journey back in time to the turn of the century and witness the heartfelt stories of six young orphans. Presented by Way Off Broadway. Thurs, Fri & Sat shows 7:30 p.m., Sun shows 2:00 p.m.

Saturday, Aug. 19

Go, Dog, Go!

TREAT

P.D. Eastman's classic children's book comes to life on stage in an exploration of movement, color and space for one special performance at the Sondheim Center. 2:00 p.m. $13

Go, Dog, Go!

Thurs, Fri, Sat, Sun, Aug. 23-26 and Thurs, Fri, Sat, Sun, Aug. 30 - Sept. 2

King Lear

King Lear - In a new two-hour production by Andrew Edlin, a great cast brings us the classic Shakespeare tragedy with many comedic moments. King Lear features several edge-of-your-seat sword fights. Thurs, Fri & Sat shows 7:30 p.m., Sun shows 2:00 p.m. $20/ $12

Saturday, Sept. 8

Paul Jones - In Concert Chamber Music Series

Well-known-iconic concert pianist making his first appearance at the Sondheim Center. 7:30 p.m. $15 / $12

Friday, Sept. 14 Retrospective — The Music of Simon & Garfunkel

Retrospective is a tribute to the quintessential songwriting team, Simon & Garfunkel of the classic folk era. Benefit for Carnegie Museum Foundation. 7:30 p.m. $12 - $27

Thursday, Sept. 20

Capitol Steps Artist Series

Make 2012 an election year worth laughing about, with Washington D.C.'s funniest political satirists. The Capitol Steps put the mock in democracy, skewering both sides of the aisle with fresh up-to-the minute political parodies. 7:30 p.m. $12 - $32

Friday, Sept. 28 Pam Tillis Acoustic Trio Artist Series

Don't miss this CMA Vocalist of the Year who has been a formidable force in country music since her first single hit the charts in 1990. Tillis, member of the Grand Ole Opry since 2000 has had numerous top ten hits including "Maybe it was Memphis". 7:30 p.m. $12 - $32.